EFC members

covering the whole spectrum of philanthropy

Diversity is the hallmark of the EFC, giving us a unique understanding of institutional philanthropy in Europe. EFC members:

- Carry out their philanthropy in many ways, from traditional grantmaking to running their own programmes to venture philanthropy and other new forms of social investment
- Range in size from small family foundations to some of the world's largest philanthropies
- Work in a wide array of fields – health, education, research, migration, disabilities, environment, arts & culture, sustainability, and many more
- Are based in countries across Europe, with many from other world regions as well
- Are active in every corner of the globe

Covid -19 Responses

- Building a Global Safety Net – some issues to think about
 1. How are European Philanthropic battling the virus locally? (1)
 2. Leveraging the strengths of Different Stakeholders (Govts, Buisness & Social Groups)
 3. Protecting Vulnerable Groups
 4. Sustainability of the Non-Profit sector going forward

European Philanthropy Statement on COVID-19:

We stand together in the spirit of European solidarity
